

Revenue, profits of major garment firms in China rise in Jan-April

15 Jun '21

Revenue, profits, output, online retail sales and exports of major garment enterprises in China have risen during the first four months of the current year, according to data from the ministry of industry and information technology. Total profit of 12,444 major garment firms shot up by 37.9 per cent year-on-year to 18 billion yuan during January-April 2021.